Philadelphia, May 10.—Yale and
Penasylvania eight cared shell verews had their final bard workout today in Pennaryivania eight oared shell verews had their final fard workout today in preparation for the 'varsity and freshman races on the Schuyikill River here late tomorrow afternoon. The Yale varsity work while not so smooth as that of the ireshmen, was powerful, and they shot over the Henley course in what was called "fast" time.

That is a fine crew," said Joe Wright, coach of the Fennsylvania cars-men, who followed the New Haven men up the river to show them the course.

The Pennsylvania crews took things a little caster as they are in fine condition and know the course therough.

The Academy tied the score in their of the inning.

Two strikeouts and an infield fly disposed of the Academy in the second, while westerly put across her first tally of the game as the result of a free pass, a hit and an error.

The Academy had a chance to score in the swill and hit safely but Counihan gummed up the works by batting into a double play in the sixth. Westerly put across there runs in the last of the sixth on three successive hits aided by errors and wildness on the part of Meek. The Academy tied the score in their "Finding public sentiment in op-dition and know the course thorough."

Local Team Loses Hard Luck Game to Rhode Island School In Last Half of the Ninth Inning-Misplay and Wild Pitch by Meek Sends Winning Run Across the Plate-Pirates Break Giants Winning Streak-Fort Terry Team at Falls Sunday.

In their first league game of the seventh. Young the first season Friday at Westerly the Academy lost to Westerly High in a hard luck game by the score of 6 to 5. The luck game by the score of 6 to 5. The first part of the game was slow on account of the cold and fog but about the seventh inning things livened up, even the umpire who seemed to be badly afflicted in his eyesight feeling the effect of the all-permeating warmth. In the first of the seventh Westerly shifted then line-up all around and at one time even the Rhode Island coach did not know who was playing where. The Academy team with a shifted line-up as the result of Sayles' injury played a good game of ball especially Counhan, Fitzgerald and Hull. Ringland a new man on third did as well as could be expected.

Lou Bogash who has been roundly panned for his poor exhibition with Young Eddie, of Greenwhich at New Taven recently, comes to the front which speaks for itself.

Lavallee, a substitute on the 1917 team, is playing in right field and though not as speedy as some outfielders is thoroughly reliable. At the bat, he is somewhat uncertain but is quite apt to come through with a telling smash at the opportune moment.

Ryan, the third new man to join the squad, is an outfielder or promise and is capable of filling any outfield positive.

Young Eddie of Greenwhich at New Taven recently, comes to the front with a sound allbit to the effect that he is not in the game for his health. Bogash says the management, when the receipts were attached, wanted to hold off on handing him the scheckels. This with the small crowd present took away any desire to ght. "Ya can't fight, can ya," reasons Lou, "for a guy that's tryin' to gyp ya outh yer a guy that's tryin' to gyp ya outa yer dough?" Moreover Bogash says he dough?" Moreover Bogash says he is used to fighting with boxing gloves and not pillows. The management provided hig, soft cushions which split open before the bout had gone far. Young Eddie, he says felt the same way about things. Bogash, however, got his money, but will think twice hefore going to any such place as New Haven again. Bogash can't be blam-ed for one bad fight, as he's a willing worker, but it serves him right for boxing in any such place as New Haven, anyway.
